2. Doug H. reported that St. Paul's Church where Sky's the Limit meets is allowing live meetings inside with CDC guidelines in place and social distancing. The group has decided to table live meetings until Phase 3 is implemented.
3. Rob K. reported that St. Rose Church where the Morning After groups meets is allowing live meetings inside but the group is not ready to do so as it does not want to police the amount of people who can enter. The group is still paying the Church rent for the space. He also announced that the Thursday Night Recovery meeting is meeting at St. Rose in the parking lot.
4. Chris reported that the Time Is Now meeting is having outside meetings behind the Church of the Nazarene and suggests that people bring their own chairs and wear masks. They are also paying the Church for rent. He also reported that the Touch of Life group is meeting outside at the Renaissance Club and Courage to Change is zooming their live meetings.
